WHAT? Annual Convention of the Wisconsin Science Professionals

WHEN? Saturday, March 16, 2013, at 12:00** pm

WHERE? AFT-WI, 6602 Normandy Lane, Madison, WI 53719

WHY? Meet other WSP members, share information and discuss important issues

WSP's Convention helps us learn what we can do to help ourselves. We'll learn about political and economic impacts on our jobs and discuss survival strategies. Learn with your fellow members how to organize together effectively. We need you and your ideas!

Tentative AGENDA

12:00-1:00pm.....Lunch provided by WSP

1:00-3:00pm.....Convention business

- All New WSP/AFT Website
- Plans for Public Service Appreciation Week
- Committee reports
- Budget approval
- Closing - Door prizes

Who should attend: All members can attend, but only delegates can vote. The number of delegates is based on a formula of 1 delegate per 10 members. Check the map for district boundaries.

Travel expenses: WSP will pay travel expenses incurred by delegates who attend the convention. We encourage car-pooling as a way to get to know other WSP members and to reduce greenhouse gases.

Registration: Early registration is appreciated. Secure your delegate status by emailing our WSP Membership Secretary at d0nal3a@gmail.com or your district rep before March 10. Please indicate your district and if you will have travel expenses. [To find your district and rep's contact info, go to: <http://wi.aft.org/WSP/>]

Thanks and see you there!
